

Boyden Interim Management appoints Tapani Hänninen as a Partner in Germany

Boyden Interim Management responds to client needs, strengthening its team in Munich

MUNICH, November 16, 2020 – Boyden, a leading global talent advisory firm with more than 70 offices in over 45 countries, has appointed experienced investment advisor Tapani Hänninen as a Partner in its Munich office.

With a track record spanning PE and VC backed businesses, family offices, multinational and Mittelstand companies, Tapani Hänninen will work closely with colleagues in Boyden's global financial services, consumer & retail, industrial and private equity & venture capital practices. Tapani will strengthen Boyden's interim team, identifying the right interim managers for owner-managed, medium-sized companies seeking interim management solutions from one of the most experienced firms in this area of leadership.

"The Corona Pandemic has hit companies across all industries with full force and intensity. After the initial shock, companies are focusing on how best to prepare themselves for the post-corona period, turning increasingly to the services of interim managers," explains Jörg Kasten, Chairman of Boyden World Corporation and Managing Partner of Boyden Germany. "With Tapani Hänninen, Boyden welcomes a storm-tested expert in interim management who has found the right interim leaders for clients at senior management levels for many years. Following twenty years of experience in the banking sector, he knows the individual needs of his clients extremely well. With Tapani Hänninen, clients and colleagues are gaining a broadly networked consultant with deep industry know-how," concludes Kasten.

Tapani Hänninen holds a BA in International Business from the American University of Paris, and speaks German, English, Finnish and French.
